The final chapter of the [Heaven's Feel] trilogy arrives on Blu-ray and digital release!

SANTA MONICA, CA (May 20, 2021) – Aniplex of America is thrilled to announce that the action-packed Fate/stay night [Heaven's Feel] III. spring song will be available subbed and English dubbed in both Limited Edition and Standard Edition Blu-ray on August 17, 2021, as well as on digital starting May 25, 2021 on Apple TV, Google Play*, Microsoft Store, PlayStation Store, and Vudu.

Both Blu-ray editions feature the blockbuster film in English and Japanese audio with English and Spanish subtitles and come with trailers and commercials as bonus contents. The Limited Edition

Blu-ray is housed in a rigid box illustrated by Takashi Takeuchi (TYPE-MOON) along with a Digipak illustrated by Director Tomonori Sudo and includes the Original Soundtrack III (by Yuki Kajiura), an art book containing key visuals, magazine art, and various illustrations, plus an Animation Material deluxe booklet featuring staff interviews and more.

Fate/stay night [Heaven's Feel] III. spring song is the final installment of the [Heaven's Feel] trilogy, which follows the third route known as the "Sakura Route," of the Fate/stay night visual novel game. The third chapter follows the events of the first two films Fate/stay night [Heaven's Feel] I. presage flower, released in 2017, and II. lost butterfly, released in 2019, as it uncovers the truth behind the Holy Grail War and features the emotional conclusion to Shirou and Sakura's story.

The film, which arrived in U.S. theaters in November 2020, features animation production by the revered studio ufotable (Demon Slayer: Kimetsu no Yaiba, Fate/Zero) and is directed by Tomonori Sudo, whose work as a character designer/animation director includes numerous TYPE-MOON anime adaptations. Renowned composer Yuki Kajiura (Puella Magi Madoka Magica, Sword Art Online) returns to compose the soundtrack for the film, along with Japanese songstress, Aimer, who provided the theme song, "Haru wa Yuku".

The film reunites both the original Japanese and English cast of Fate/stay night [Unlimited Blade Works], including Noriaki Sugiyama and Bryce Papenbrook as Shirou Emiya, Ayako Kawasumi and Kari Wahlgren as Saber Alter, Kana Ueda and Mela Lee as Rin Tohsaka, and Noriko Shitaya and Cristina Vee as the tragic heroine Sakura Matou.

Pre-orders for both the Limited Edition and Standard Edition Blu-rays are open now at online retailer RightStuf Anime (<https://www.rightstufanime.com/>).

About Fate/stay night [Heaven's Feel] III. spring song:

To save the girl, to enact the justice he's chosen...The young man will no longer turn a blind eye to the truth. Mages (Masters) and Heroic Spirits (Servants) work together in the battles of the Holy Grail War, a fight for an omnipotent wish-granting container called the Holy Grail. However, this war has become horribly twisted.

A young woman named Sakura Matou, with the sins she has committed, drowns in the murky darkness. A young man named Shirou Emiya, who vowed to protect Sakura, works together with Rin Tohsaka and throws himself into the raging battle to put a stop to the Holy Grail War. Illyasviel von Einzbern, as one of the few who knows the truth behind the conflict, confronts her own fate, while Zouken Matou uses Sakura to try to fulfill his own desires.

Will the young man's wish reach her even as he challenges fate itself, battling against the rising tide? The Holy Grail War is coming to an end... The final battle is about to begin.
