About Fate/strange Fake

Introduction

Fate/strange Fake, written by Ryohgo Narita and published by Dengeki Bunko beginning in 2015, presents a new battle over the Holy Grail, coming soon as an animated TV series. For the first time ever, witness as a Holy Grail War rages in the United States. Gape as an abundance of Masters and Servants are embroiled in a mad saga of furious struggle.

The animation will be brought to life by A-1 Pictures, who also animated Fate/Apocrypha in 2017. Taking the directorial reins are Shun Enokido and Takahito Sakazume, who have produced animated trailers for the mobile game Fate/Grand Order and the novel version of Fate/strange Fake. With their contemporary touch, Enokido and Sakazume are sure to delight Fate fans with their dynamic and expressive animation.

This is the dawn of a brand-new conflict, and a Holy Grail War covered in lies.
